

Brandeis University Undergraduate
Student Union SMR#2 F07
Resolution for Presidential Pep Rally

WHEREAS Clinton's Pep Rally is scheduled for December 2nd 2007; and

WHEREAS it is the central piece of citizenship week, a series of programs the Student Union was asked to put on by Office of Communications; and

WHEREAS the rally will not only excite the campus for Clinton's speech, but will also allow us to promote the discussions and events collaboratively sponsored by the Student Union that fill out the week following Clinton's speech; and

WHEREAS the budget for the event includes:

Brandeis Citizenship T-Shirts (250 units)	$937.50
Buttons (200 units):	$300
Food	$1000
Balloons	$200
Public Safety (1 Officers)	$175
Custodial (1 Staffer)	$145
Conference and Events (Tables/Pipe/Drape)	$150

WHEREAS this event will help make Brandeis citizenship something fun; and

WHEREAS we are hoping to have 500 students attend the event; and

WHEREAS there is no other major social event for the rest of the semester; and

WHEREAS the event will cost $2907.50;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Student Union Senate grant up to $800 towards the Clinton Pep Rally.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jessica Blumberg, Senator-at Large

Julia Sferlazzo, Senator for the Class of 2009

Julie Rapp, Senator for the Class of 2010

Christina Khemraj, Director of Campus Life

Brian Paternostro, Union Advocate
