Senate Confirmation of New Office of the Treasurer Personnel

Contact: Jahfree Duncan, bandele@brandeis.edu

On Sunday, December 2, 2007, the senate confirmed Tia Chatterjee ('09) and Diana Aronin ('11) as new members of the Office of the Treasurer last Sunday. Together, they will split the role of the current Executive Assistant, Dina Gankin ('09). Gankin will be in England in a study abroad program for next semester.

The reason why the role of Executive Assistant is being divided for next semester is not because Gankin could not handle the responsibilities. She does great things for the Office of the Treasurer and the Student Body as a whole. It is because the role of Executive Assistant is expanded.

As next semester is the last semester for Ha as the Treasurer, he will be busier than ever, getting involved in many more projects. In addition, the implementation of next semester's ticketing policy—no clubs will be able to charge admissions to Student Activities Fee funded events—will necessitate that our Treasurer, Choon Woo Ha ('08), meet with chartered club leaders throughout the semester to discuss the various issues that may arise. This will add the scheduling of at least 200 additional meetings to the Executive assistants role.

Chatterjee's position will involve her scheduling all of Ha's meetings on his Oracle Calendar as the Executive Assistant of the Office of the Treasurer. Aronin will work on processing Treasury documents and conduct Office of the Treasury meetings as the new Operations Manager.
